MEMORANDUM FOR: General Counsel
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: IOB in Secrecy Oath

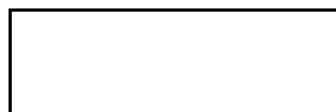

1. We once talked about a suggestion that was made that our Secrecy Oath contain a notice in it to the effect that there is the IOB to whom people may turn and perhaps other channels such as the IG or direct communication with me. During a group discussion which we had last Thursday with [redacted] concerning his unauthorized releases of classified information, I specifically asked him if he had thought of going to the IOB with his problem. He indicated a considerable fuzziness as to what the IOB was. In short, getting the word around is difficult. Putting it in the Secrecy Oath might be helpful.

2. We originally didn't want to open that issue while the Snapp trial was on. Should we relook at the whole issue now?
